1. The Indian Army under the aegis of Kalapahar Brigade, Dagger Division organized a motivational talk on "Women Warriors and Achievers in the Field of Education" at Govt Degree College, Uri on 12 Jul 2026. The programme aimed to inspire young girls and students by highlighting the remarkable achievements of women who have excelled in the field of education through dedication, perseverance and leadership. A total of 156 students and 42 faculty members participated in the event.
2. During the session, students were introduced to the inspiring journeys of distinguished women educators and achievers who have made significant contributions to society and nation-building. The lecture encouraged students to pursue their aspirations with confidence, embrace the value of education and develop qualities of discipline, resilience and self-belief.
3. The lecture also emphasized the importance of gender equality, women empowerment and creating an environment where every girl is provided equal opportunities to achieve her dreams. Special emphasis was laid on the role of women in nation-building and the need to support girls' education in remote areas of the Kashmir Valley.
4. The students actively participated in the interactive session and shared their views and questions with the Army officials. The motivational guidance shared by Bajrang Battalion was highly appreciated by the students and staff.
5. The event concluded with a vote of thanks to Bajrang Battalion for organizing such an inspiring and informative programme. The programme further strengthened civil-military cooperation and the Indian Army's commitment towards youth engagement, education and women empowerment.
